MHRB Board of Directors welcomes 3 new members

MASON, OHIO, September 14, 2021 – The Board of Directors for the Mental Health Recovery Board Serving Warren & Clinton Counties (MHRB) is pleased to announce the appointments of three new members.

Angela Brown of Centerville joined the MHRB board in August. Brown brings personal family experience and a volunteer spirit to the Board of Directors. She is employed by the City of Kettering and has extensive community involvement as a board member in other groups and organizations such as the Ohio Conference of Community Development, Miami Valley Fair Housing Center, and Parents Empowering All Children of Color. Angela received her Master of Arts from the University of Iowa and her Bachelor of Arts from Capital University in Columbus.

Christine Charlton, a resident of Lebanon, joined the board in September. She currently serves as the Warren County Juvenile Court Clinic Director at the Mary Haven Youth Center and is a former staff member at Solutions Community Counseling & Recovery Centers. Christine is passionate about residents having access to quality mental health services and is eager to serve the community. A graduate of Springboro High School, she holds a Master of Social Work from West Virginia University and a Bachelor of Arts in Social Work from Wright State University.

Paula Harrison will join the MHRB board at its October meeting. She resides in Mason and currently services as assistant chair of the Department of Nursing at Miami University in Oxford. Paula has been an active community member for mental health. She has served on other non-profit boards, most recently holding several leadership roles with NAMI of Butler County and previous board involvement with Transitional Living Inc. and has served as a speaker for staff at the Lindner Center of Hope. She holds a Master of Science in Nursing from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, and received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Toledo.
