

Survivors After Suicide Support Group

Survivors after Suicide is a support group that meets monthly in Wilmington.

If you have ever lost a loved one to suicide, this support group may be for you. The goal is to give and receive support for our unique journey as survivors of suicide.

Everyone in the group, including the facilitator, has had someone close to them die by suicide and knows how devastating the experience can be.

“Survivors often experience a wide range of reactions including shock, guilt, depression, anger and relief. Many survivors find it comforting to talk to others who have also suffered a suicide loss,” said a spokesperson.

Meetings take place at:

Presbyterian Church of Wilmington
Timber Glen Drive (beside Holmes School)
Wilmington, Ohio
